

On your shoulders with a Swann&Oscar made-to-measure shirt.

Instead of spending hours on forums reading thousands of opinions about the “perfect shirt”, you should go straight to rue de l’Arcade in the 8th arrondissement and enter the Swann&Oscar boutique. Because guess what, the perfect shirt doesn’t really exist: Sizing, collars, buttons, shapes, fabrics etc... Shirts present too many options that differ for each person. But when the quality is there, then it’s just a matter of personal choice that reflects our personality, so make yours there.
